DATALLEGRO GAINS NEW BOARD MEMBER

Len Tenner Brings 20+ Years Experience in Technology Industry to Data Warehouse Appliance Vendor

Aliso Viejo, CA - May 3, 2006 – DATALlegro™, supplier of data warehouse appliances that lead the industry in price and performance, today announced that Len Tenner has joined the company’s Board of Directors.

Len is the Chief Information Officer Emeritus for Hewitt Associates. Before his retirement, Len was Chief Technology Strategist for the company where he explored extending Hewitt’s outsourcing businesses into the public sector, including state and local government as well as into Asia with emphasis on China.

Prior to Hewitt, Len held a number of management roles in information technology at BP-Amoco including Operations Research, Data Center Management, IT Security, IT Strategic Planning and Worldwide IT Procurement.

In addition to his new role as Board Member for DATALlegro, Len is a Director at Flashline, a Cleveland based software company and CipherOptics, a Raleigh based hardware/software security company. Also, he is on the advisory boards of The Harvard Group, an advisory board facilitation and sales training company, and Blazent, a California based software company.

“Every so often a company appears with disruptive technology that further enables and expands a market,” said Mr. Tenner. “DATALlegro is such an enterprise and it is exciting to be part of the guidance as a Board member.”

“Len is a great addition to our team,” said Stuart Frost, CEO of DATALlegro. “With his business relationships and experience in the technology industry Len is able to make a great contribution to our growth.”
